...meeting the critical needs of homeless children

The Jack Brewer Foundation | Captain Hope's Kids "TOOLS FOR SCHOOL" – 2012 Drive

The Jack Brewer Foundation (JBF Worldwide) is hosting a "Tools for School" Drive in partnership with Captain Hope's Kids for the several women and children living in homeless and domestic violence shelters throughout the North Texas area.

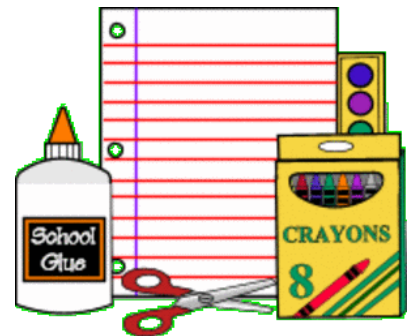

On any given night over 1,100 children will fall asleep in a homeless or domestic violence shelter.

66% percent are under the age of 9, while 31% percent are infants under the age of 3.

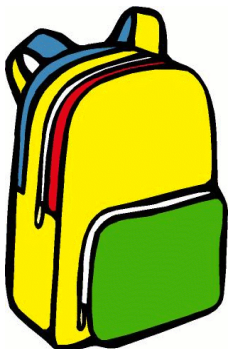

LaTisha Jarrett, Director of USA Partnerships for JBF Worldwide, will be collecting and hand delivering donations to Captain Hope's Kids for the several shelters throughout North Texas. Please help the women and children in need this Back to School Season by donating the following brand new items...

- Boys and Girls Backpacks for all ages
- #2 Wooden Pencils, all types of school supplies
- Markers, Crayons, Blue and Black Pens
- 12" Rulers, Glue, Index Cards
- Notebooks, Pocket Folders, Notebook Paper

Please contact LaTisha Jarrett or JBF Worldwide for instructions on where to deliver your donations. It would be greatly appreciated to have all donations collected by Thursday, August 9th in effort to reach the children's desk in time for the first day of school.

Please visit The Jack Brewer Foundation for any monetary donations at www.thejackbrewerfoundation.org
