YOUTH AT THE COP IN WARSAW, POLAND

In order to support parties and negotiators to adopt a second commitment of the Kyoto Protocol and other fair and ambitious deals on climate change young people from numerous countries from around the world will convene to Warsaw and work together. While the youth may not hold high office nor will we be sitting at the negotiation tables, they can persuade and influence key decision-makers in government, business and media, galvanize public opinion and mobilize grassroots movements. These are the goals of Youth Participation for Warsaw this year and including those of the entire Worldview Mission International Delegate chosen to be at the COP19 this year.
