Dear All

My name is JOSEPH SENYO KWASHIE from GHANA and the founder of Community and Family Aid Foundation-NGO in Ghana, of national in nature working for and pursuing youth and other social humanitarian development agenda for more than half a decade now. I am well rooted in the work of NGOs with a decades and half experience. I had worked and volunteered for more than 200 civil societies in Ghana and abroad to execute quite a number of projects. I have a fair balance of educational laurels and degrees of recognition from various institutional backgrounds.

Thus, having served in these capacities has tremendously turned the fortunes of the society around over the years. I also coordinate most of the charity work activities and a planner for key events. With these roles highlighted I have served delightedly at the CSOS vineyard over the years providing selflessly services to those who needed it most. Working actively and in partnership with people, organizations, different churches, cultures, sectors, beliefs, and practices, in Ghana, Africa and on the Global scene has been my hallmark.

I am a member of the NGOS NETWORK under Commission of Human Rights and Administrative Justice - CHRAJ in GHANA, NETRIHGTS

I am a well-gifted persona who takes up any challenges with a prolific writing back ground and specializes in youth activism, human rights, governance and accountability, training, SRH, Research, development planning, women's health, and policy reforms.

I have been involved in the work of comprehensive youth activism in the areas of woemsn right,sAdolescent Sexual Reproductive Health and Rights at the state, district, and national levels, serving as an officer, committee member, delegate, and, most recently, as the National Treasure of the Coalition of Youth Development Organizations in Ghana (COYODOG), leading various project in the health arena. I have been actively involved in special projects including "Operation Youth for Positive Health," a program to improve

THE CAFAF ENCOUNTER SERIES 2016

These presentations will focus of showing our works and impact we have had in the lives of people and communities we have served over the years both in Ghana and abroad. Its a collection of facts, demonstration, youth actions that have touched lives. thus, forging partnership to foster development counts in whatever we do. Our citizens government engagement have afar reaching impacts on communities and people we have served. With these mixture of presentation we have cut a niche for ourselves with over decades of serving people and making every life counts. more emphasis will be placed on the human rights factors among others.
