OVERVIEW

The Project MENTOR+ Camp is a project of RAISED Initiatives – Ghana designed for university students and graduates to mentor majorly students in remote communities across the country through series of educational, social and health activities that will inspire them to ascend the educational ladder and improve on their social and health needs.

The camp is a 4 day residential program that will collate ideas from our carefully selected mentors and aggregate them into relevant themes able to shape the students (mentee). It is also intended to offer an opportunity to bridge the identity gap that is often perceived to exist within students in rural communities.

Our mentors shall provide a yearlong mentorship assistance to these students via in person and online platform.

PROGRAM PILLARS

Partnership Matching

Strong mentee-mentor matching is the foundation of constructive mentoring relationship. The mentor's career experience must align with the mentees needs and the critical gaps, that, if filled could allow the mentee to progress in their career.

Networking

Team collaboration and joint working foster a culture of innovation and creativity. Bouncing ideas of colleagues, sharing insights as well as offering different experiences can result in breakthrough thinking.

Community engagement

Our health screening exercise aims to provide information to influence their future decision –making on health.

Capacity Building

Improve capacity for sustainable development. Enabling personal development goals for mentors and mentees alike. To develop the technical, managerial and leadership skills of mentors and mentees to plan and deliver more effective potential in support of inclusive and sustainable development.
