OUR PLAN OF ACTION:

After a comprehensive analysis about families and relatives (young adults and old adults) in a potential participating partner country is discussed and the situation in the community/country is clear and concrete, a strategic plan of action follows.

Subsequently, a project plan with budget and division of tasks is worked on. To build a good structure, the tasks are discussed how it will be tackled among the community leaders divided and elaborated, “who does what”, must be watched, with accountability.

Worldview Mission provides voluntary guidance, oversees that the priorities of the UN 17 Sustainable Development Goals are included in the project plan. Worldview Mission pays particular attention and plays a vital role in supporting community projects that she collaborates with.

There is a lot of poverty, hunger, health issues, such as Malaria, high blood pressure, Covid-19 Corona Virus Pandemic and other diseases. In addition, shortage of clean water, lack of borehole machines, lack of school materials, educational training centers for women, young adults and elderly most in South American countries, and African countries. Worldview Mission partners have land available but need materials to cultivate the land, to construct school buildings, housing for elderly, community learning centres, training centers and transportation.

Worldview Mission welcomes donors to support our network contacts in South American countries, and African countries. Supporting teachers who need school materials. Churches needing church materials. The elderly and young adults need for their families, toys, food, clothing, computers, agricultural farming machines to work the land.

NEEDS OF WORLDVIEW MISSION:

Worldview Mission needs students who can voluntarily rewrite a good strategic project plan for project activities in the South American countries and African countries.

With the aim of a more conscious and cleaner hygiene to fight diseases such as Covid-19 virus, and educational projects to fight poverty in the Zuid American countries and African countries to maintain a sustainable lifestyle and a cleaner environment. These countries not only need a helping hand, but also pay a lot of attention to awareness in their own environment regarding sustainability and a better climate for a better world.

DONORS/FUNDS NEEDED

To start and participate in projects in the Suriname, French Gyenna (South American) and African countries during the Covid-19 Pandemic, Worldview Mission is looking for volunteers and students to raise funds for these countries.

Those who want to commit themselves to fundraising projects intended for the street projects to motivate street children to go to school. They need a chance, in anticipation of a better future and better health care for those around disaster areas in the world, through humanitarian aid. Worldview Mission with partners is willing to impartially aid affected populations, regardless of their race, ethnic group, religion, gender, age, nationality, or political affiliation. The younger women also need help to restart their clothing workshop. The community in Africa will restart after the Covid-19 pandemic to fight extreme poverty and be stimulated again to earn their own living by making clothes to sell, to combat all kinds of poverty.

Not only school education is needed but also educational training to raise awareness of climate change.

Furthermore, we are looking for volunteers and students to update and maintain our websites, also to support the vision and mission of Worldview Mission, and to write projects for the project activities in South American and African countries.

The programs of Worldview Mission (WM) are focused on improving the self-direction, self-determination and self-regulation of our youth, rather than giving them a handout that is just a short-lived solution, but not a solution to the problem.

Worldview Mission is an informative online platform affiliated with a host of other similar International organizations, with the same SDGs goals, engaged in poverty eradication, primarily engaged in activities in South American and African countries.

Most of the themes are aimed at the weaker and underprivileged and refugee women who are oppressed, and who have faced sexual assault, war zones, calamities and corruption by the government there.

The Worldview Mission president and members are volunteers who exchange ideas online with other volunteers from South America and Africa. Coach, advises, supports young adults who are leaders of a group from their own community.

World Vision Mission Provides information about the UN goals and provides short online training on how to deal with the (SDGs) sustainable development goals. Worldview Mission joins the United Nations SDGs by providing a handout to fight the cycle of poverty in line with the UN Goals.

The youth leaders organize and provide educational and awareness activities that are held within their own environment and community, as needed. This is to improve the quality of life for the elderly and young people from their own community. In other words, give each other a chance to create a better living environment and support each other's cause to fight poverty.

With the aim of preparing to become leaders to eventually represent their country. They get a chance to share their wishes, experience, and ideas on an international level. Annual international theme days organized by the UN, they are invited, together with other trained young adults from many countries, to attend the annual Youth Ambassadors celebration.

Those with the best success story, are rewarded by int'l organizations affiliated with the UN with a free plane ticket and accommodation and will be welcomed as volunteers. The Youth Network is being expanded on an international level with the idea that the Youth Ambassadors will be an example for the emerging generation to train the community with the same or new ideas that they themselves have enjoyed Worldview Mission Chairman is willing to provide online advice and coaching at all times on a voluntary basis if requested.

Due to lack of internet connection in African countries, church fundraising activities can be published on the Worldview Mission website, in support of project activities carried out there, with addition of bank account numbers of Foundations from those countries.

At the end of each event, a mandatory report and/or photo report is emailed to the Worldview Mission president who contributed to it. This will be placed on the website for perusal in order to motivate others to participate, to achieve the goals of the UN, to combat poverty and to improve armaments and/or awareness of the global warming climate change.
