Community And Family Aid Foundation –Ghana celebrates UHC Day 2022

International UHC Day is celebrated each year on 12 December. Thank you to everyone who joined the UHC Day campaign in December 2022, with the theme “Building A Healthier Future For All In Ghana Collective Efforts Of All Matters”. Read more about the UHC Day campaign and review engagement on social media using the hashtag #UHCday. You can continue to use all resources and the toolkit provided on the campaign website. We will announce the campaign theme for 2023 in May 2023.

In the lead-up to UHC Day 2022, we are excited to announce a UHC Day series featuring UHC-related highlights, suggested key messages to engage with, and ongoing information about this year’s campaign to drive momentum toward 12 December. In this issue, we provide a recap of the UHC Day Partner Kickoff Call and UHC-related highlights at UNGA77.

We are looking forward to continuing working to support your #HealthForAll advocacy efforts. For any questions, please reach out to campaign@uhcday.org.

Our foundation took a bold step of organizing a series of community activities such women’s cooking completion in partnership with the rural project support network women’s group at the ABOKOBI community in Accra towards the end of November. This solid platform was used to educate and shares the latest universal health coverage messages, state of play of health issues in Ghana and beyond.

Group of Friends of UHC Event Summary:

Third Annual Ministerial Event of the Group of Friends on UHC

In advance of the 2023 UN High-Level Meeting on UHC, the event focused on mobilizing political leadership to strengthen health systems through a primary healthcare-oriented approach.

A series of thematic conversations discussed, among other topics, the importance of strengthening financing for health systems as a means of pandemic prevention, addressing health inequities amid humanitarian and displacement crises, and the impact of climate on health. The event concluded with examples of best practices to accelerate global progress toward achieving UHC by 2030.

The event featured remarks from Dr. Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, Director-General of World Health Organization and the hosts of the event: H.E. Mr. Don Pramudwinai, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs, Kingdom of Thailand and H.E. Mr. Hayashi Yoshimasa, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Japan.

Today is:- Universal Health Coverage Day 2022

12th December 2022 - Monday

Theme: " Build the world we want: A healthy future for all,"

I Joseph Kwashie and management of Community And Family Aid Foundation-Ghana, join the international community to celebrate the 2022 Universal Health Coverage Day, this day ..12 12 2022...

A Healthy generation makes a healthy world, as the world is facing overlapping Humanitarian and environmental emergencies. From poverty to hunger to the looming threat of pandemics to the climate, vast inequalities, inequities persist within and between countries.

It's also providing opportunities to Build the better world we Want: A healthy future for all....

Quality Health service and care are not the reserved for the have and have not but for all... Universal health coverage lifts people out of poverty,promotes well-being of families and communities, protect against public health crisis and move us towards health for all...

Now

Let's acknowledge and celebrate progress moving towards UHC in all regions of the world 🌐 Raise awareness for the need to increase investments from government to build a sustainable and resilient health systems that can drive high quality, affordable,people centered, life-long participatory primary health care for all...

Beyond that, the time is now to re-prioritize UHC and for health systems to work for everyone...

Finally,

If it must be done, it must be done well, UHC inequities in service coverage and financial hardships exists in many countries,especially among vulnerable and hard to reach populations...

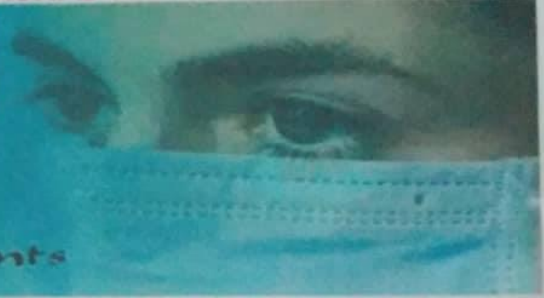

Let's walk the talks and fight for what matters most and that includes me and you...there is no better time than now , let's rise to " Build the world we want now: A healthy future for all...

Thanks

International Migrants Day 2022

UN Secretary-General's statement to the Network

Sat, Dec 17 at 11:50 AM

On this International Migrants Day, we reflect on the lives of the over 280 million people who left their country in the universal pursuit of opportunity, dignity, freedom, and a better life.

Today, over 80 per cent of the world's migrants cross borders in a safe and orderly fashion.

This migration is a powerful driver of economic growth, dynamism, and understanding.

But unregulated migration along increasingly perilous routes – the cruel realm of traffickers – continues to extract a terrible cost.

Over the past eight years, at least 51,000 migrants have died – and thousands more have disappeared.

Behind each number is a human being – a sister, brother, daughter, son, mother, or father.

Migrant rights are human rights. They must be respected without discrimination – and irrespective of whether their movement is forced, voluntary, or formally authorized.

We must do everything possible to prevent the loss of life – as a humanitarian imperative and a moral and legal obligation.

We must provide for search and rescue efforts and medical care.

We must expand and diversify rights-based pathways for migration – to advance the Sustainable Development Goals and address labour market shortages.

And we need greater international support for investments in countries of origin to ensure migration is a choice, not a necessity.

There is no migration crisis; there is a crisis of solidarity.

Today and every day, let us safeguard our common humanity and secure the rights and dignity of all.

Today is international volunteers day ..... so I want to say a little...

“As you grow older, you will discover that you have two hands — one for helping yourself, the other for helping others 🙌🏻”

“The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others.... 🙌🏻🙌🏻”

“Volunteering is at the very core of being a human. No one has made it through life without someone else’s help.” – 🍌

“Volunteerism is the voice of the people put into action. These actions shape and mold the present into a future of which we can all be proud.” 💪

“Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has.” 😊

“We make a living by what we get. We make a life by what we give.” 🤔🤗

“Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much.” – 🧑

“Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around.” Nadia 🍊

“Everybody can be great. Because anybody can serve. You don’t have to have a college degree to serve. You don’t have to make your subject and your verb agree to serve. You don’t have to know the second theory of thermodynamics in physics to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love.” 🍷🍷🍷

“Life’s most persistent and urgent question is, what are you doing for others? 🤔 From all of from #stopthecut2030 I wish to say a very big thank to all our wonderful volunteers all around the globe.... your the best 🍷🍷🍷..... May the spirit of volunteerism keep us all.... warm regards. 🍊

Dear Mr Joseph Kwashie

Thank you once again for taking the time to support our joint letter to the UN General Assembly, calling for the involvement of academics and healthcare workers in the forthcoming UN High-Level Meeting on TB.

We are delighted to have secured support from over 400 colleagues from around the world. The letter has now been sent to the President of the UN General Assembly and the two Co-Facilitators of the meeting. The letter is attached for your records, and further information can be found on the UK Academics and Professionals to End TB website (www.ukaptb.org).

We will be in touch again in the new year to keep you informed about the letter's impact, and to let you know about any further advocacy opportunities. If you have any questions, ideas, or suggestions for collaboration, we would love to hear from you.

Wishing you a restful festive season and a healthy start to the new year.
